Muhammad Rauf Vs. Tahir Traders.

Petition u/s 25 of Punjab Consumer Protection Act 2005.

EX-PARTE ORDER

Present: - Petitioner in person. Respondent is ex-parte.

Brief facts of the case are that on 30-6-10, the petitioner took his laptop at respondent's shop for repairing and also paid them Rs.1300/- as repairing charges. After so called repair work, the respondent returned the laptop to petitioner on the insurance that the same was all made ok. On such insurance, the petitioner brought back the laptop for non supply of electricity by reason of load shedding but when the petitioner started to use it, he found that respondent had changed its processor 700MHZ to 350MHZ. The respondent also did not return the original processor. Besides all this, he also misbehaved the petitioner. The latter demanded from former to redress his grievance but he did not redress his grievance nor he responded petitioner's legal notice dated 8-7-10 hence, this petition.

2. Petition was fixed for filing written statement but on 2-11-10 nobody appeared on behalf of respondent, therefore, respondent was proceeded ex-parte.

Muhammad Rauf Vs. Tahir Traders.

3. Petitioner appeared as PW-1 and also placed on record his sworn affidavit EX-P1 and documentary evidence in support of his claim i.e. copy of legal notice EX-P2, postal receipt EX-P3 and purchase receipt EX-P4.

4. As petitioner's evidence has not been rebutted by the respondent due to ex-parte proceedings, therefore, the same is relied upon and petitioner's claim is decreed ex-parte in the manner that the respondent shall repair and put the suit laptop in working condition after installing original processor 700MHZ. They shall also compensate the petitioner by paying Rs.10,000/- as damages for causing him physical / mental discomfort and Rs.5000/- as litigation expenses whereas petitioner's remaining claim is hereby dismissed. After due completion, file be consigned to record room.
