APPLICATION U/S 25 OF THE PUNJAB CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT.2005

Order

Briefly the facts of the case are that claimant on 10.08.2017 purchased a new LED Samsung from the defendant with one year warranty for a consideration of Rs. 13500/-; that after two months of its use, the said LED gone out of order; that claimant approached the defendant and requested to its replacement or to return the original price, but the defendant did not bother to his request.

Notices were issued to the parties. On 12.02.2018 parties appeared and partly compromise was affected between them. On the request of the parties, application was adjourned for 20.02.2018 for completion of settlement. On the said date, claimant himself appeared and recorded his statement stating therein that my all grievances have been redressed by the defendant party. He further stated that I have no any objection against defendant party and I do not want to pursue further my application.

In view of the statement of the claimant, grievances have been redressed by the defendants party and the claimant does not want to pursue further his application, so the same be disposed off as withdrawn and file be consigned to record room after its due completion.
