Learned Counsel for the petitioner. The petitioner claims that he made a contract to purchase & fixing of tiles with the respondent, but the tiles fixed by respondent were below standard resultantly the petitioner suffered mental and material loss, and when the respondent failed to reply, <sup>of the petitioner</sup> the notice sent by the petitioner, who filed the petition in hand claiming damages of Rs. ~~505000/-~~ <sup>550000/-</sup>. The respondent appeared through his counsel but absented himself lateron and was proceeded against exparte. The petitioner submitted his evidence, oral as well as documentary. Today I have heard the arguments of the learned Counsel for the petitioner and after hearing the arguments and going through the record I hereby decree the claim of the petitioner to the extent of Rs.55000/- as the claim of the petition is too excessive. File be consigned to the record room.
